

The Council of European Geodetic Surveyors
Comité de Liaison des Géomètres Européens

GERAR seminar

Land consolidation

Lyon-France

26-27 September 2013

Presentation

- The National union of licensed surveyors qualified in land consolidation (GERAR) will organize in September 2013 a European and international two-day seminar in the French city of Lyon, which will be supported by OGE.
- The topic of the seminar is the following : “70 years of land consolidation in France: principles, methods and evolution - Comparison with other experiences in Europe and in the world”.
- In line with the work shop on land administration and the next GA Chisinau

Pre-programme

- 26 September 2013
 - Opening session
 - 2 Technical sessions on agricultural land consolidation and on forest land consolidation
- 27 September 2013
 - 3 technical sessions on land consolidation resulting from an infrastructure, land consolidation for environmental and communal development, exchange and transfer of rural landed property

Technical details

- Simultaneous translation
- Participation of FAO and World Bank representatives
- The GERAR is calling for international presentations in English for the technical sessions
- Abstracts shall be sent until April 30th at the following address : gerar.lyon@gmail.com